Dear Beth,

Thanks so much for trekking to Connecticut for our Equal Access Institute. I was so sorry to have to miss your presentation but Doug Ford of the CT State Library gave you great reviews. Many people were still discussing how teens could not give up their cell phones at the closing of the Institute. You help librarians to see things from a young adult perspective, at least for a moment. Successful teen programming is impossible without a glimpse into the teen mind.

I also want to thank you for offering your valuable services to libraries for the future. Your willingness to donate your time is a precious gift. I hope your presence at our Institute generates a lot of business for you in the future.

It was great to work with you. You are cool under pressure (or the lack of it in the case of your tire). You also bring a sense of fun to your profession. (Not often said about the stereotypical librarian). I hope we can work together again.

Sincerely,
Jean Burdett
